

Leadership WORKSHOPS

Conference Hall A-B

Innovative Impact: Memorable Methods For Students To Level Up Their Leadership

Blake Fly
Tuesday 1:15PM

Blake Fly uses live music, clean humor and non-political examples to invite students to make a positive impact, in some of the most simple and actionable ways. Students will be inspired by the stories, entertained by the dynamic way Blake connects with audiences and equipped with actionable steps to level up their leadership.

How They Did It: Lessons from Oklahoma FFA Star Winners

Callen Veit and Hunter Brashears

Tuesday 2:15PM

Ever wonder what it takes to earn the title of Oklahoma FFA Star? Join 2025 State Star in Agriscience, Callen Veit, and 2025 State Star in Agricultural Business, Hunter

Brashers, as they share their journeys to success. Learn firsthand how they developed their award-winning projects, balanced leadership and SAE involvement, and prepared for the rigorous selection process. Whether you're just getting started or already working toward your own Star award, this session will give you practical advice and inspiration to help you reach the top.

Peach State Perspective: Georgia State FFA Officer Workshop

State Vice President Evan Hardeman

Tuesday 4:00PM

We are pleased to welcome Georgia State FFA Officer Evan Hardeman for a leadership workshop with our members. Georgia FFA serves more than 80,000 FFA members, and the strong friendship between Georgia FFA and Oklahoma FFA makes this opportunity especially meaningful.

Lead With Your Voice

Caleb Ames and Kayla Poling

Wednesday 10:30AM

In this interactive leadership workshop, FFA members will discover their unique leadership voice, build confidence to speak up, and learn how leadership shows up through courage, service, and authenticity. Through engaging activities, reflection, and movement, members will leave with greater self-belief, a clearer understanding of their strengths, and one bold action they are committed to taking within the next week. This workshop empowers students to see themselves as leaders today.

Who Told You That?

Ketric Newell
Wednesday 1:00PM

In this workshop, Ketric will teach students how to break free from the lies that shape them and help them replace the limiting beliefs with truth and step into their full potential.

Empower!

Trey Myers, National FFA President
Wednesday 4:00PM

Leadership is about more than holding a title; it is about empowering others to succeed. In this workshop, Trey Myers, National FFA President and one of our own from Oklahoma, will challenge FFA members to step confidently into leadership, use their voice with purpose, and serve with intention. Currently serving more than one million FFA members nationwide, Trey will share insights on leading with humility, responsibility, and impact in an ever-changing world.

FFA... an opportunity for youth.

Career Success WORKSHOPS

Conference Hall C-D

From Blue Jackets to Classrooms

Oklahoma State Teach Ag Results Committee
Tuesday 1:30PM

Your FFA experience doesn't have to end after graduation. Step into a career where you can continue leading, teaching, and making a difference. Join this workshop to explore the world of agricultural education, where every day brings new opportunities to motivate students, strengthen communities, and advance agriculture. Learn how you can turn your FFA passion into a meaningful profession.

Built to Work: Technician Careers Powering Oklahoma's Industries

Warren Cat
Tuesday 2:30PM

Skilled CAT technicians keep Oklahoma's agriculture, construction, energy, mining, and electric power industries running – from powering well sites and building highways to keeping data centers online. Many technicians start their careers through paid internships and on-the-job training. This workshop explores CAT technician careers that blend hands-on work with advanced technology, highlighting the skills required and training pathways that lead to a rewarding and impactful career.

Judging Livestock in College

Parker Henley
Tuesday 4:00PM

Thinking about continuing your livestock judging journey after graduation? Join Oklahoma State University Livestock Judging Coach Parker Henley for an inside look at what it takes to judge at the collegiate level. This workshop will explore scholarship opportunities, team travel, practice structure, and how competitive judging can open doors to leadership, career success, and lifelong connections in the agricultural industry. Whether you're a seasoned competitor or just getting started, come learn how to take your judging experience to the next level.

Growing Your Future with KOCH Agronomic Solutions

KOCH Agronomic Solutions
Wednesday 9:45AM

Looking for a career that combines agriculture, science, and innovation? Learn how KOCH Agronomic Solutions is transforming plant nutrition and sustainability in modern farming. This workshop will introduce you to diverse career paths in agronomy, product development, and agricultural sales while showing how teamwork and technology drive success. Discover how you can grow your own future with a company dedicated to advancing the next generation of agricultural leaders.

AGRONOMIC SERVICES

Interview Like a Pro!

Oklahoma CareerTech
Leadership and Professional Development Division
Wednesday 11:00AM

Ready to stand out in your next job interview? This hands-on workshop, led by the Leadership and Professional Development staff at the Oklahoma Department of CareerTech, will help you master the skills that make a lasting impression.

Learn how to prepare effectively, communicate with confidence, and highlight your strengths through professional examples and body language. The session will also cover how to create strong résumés and cover letters that set you apart. Whether you're applying for a scholarship, internship, or full-time position, discover the tools to present your best self and interview like a pro.

OKLAHOMA
CareerTech

LPD Leadership and Professional Development

Your Future in Agriculture with AFR

American Farmers and Ranchers Cooperative
Wednesday 1:30PM

Learn how American Farmers and Ranchers Cooperative helps young people build successful futures in agriculture. With roots dating back more than a century, AFR has been a trusted voice for Oklahoma farmers and ranchers and continues to invest in the next generation. This session highlights AFR youth programs including leadership summits, speech contests, scholarships, and internships, all designed to help young agriculturalists grow their skills, confidence, and purpose for a successful future in agriculture.

AMERICAN FARMERS & RANCHERS

So, You Want to Be a Cowboy?

OSU Agriculture Agriculture Ambassador Team
Wednesday 3:00PM

Ready to see what life as an OSU Cowboy could look like? Join us for an inside look at the Ferguson College of Agriculture and the exciting opportunities available at Oklahoma State University. You'll meet current OSU students who will share real-world experiences, insider advice, and everything they wish they had known before college. Come curious and bring your questions — our Ferguson College ambassadors can't wait to help you pave your path to becoming a Cowboy.

FERGUSON COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

LEADERSHIP WORKSHOPS SPONSORED BY:

AAON × Cimarron Trailers × Enel North America Inc. × Fred and Leesa Stanley × Georgia Pacific
Great Plains Kubota × Invenergy × The U.S. Army × TSET Healthy Youth Initiative

CAREER SUCCESS WORKSHOPS SPONSORED BY:

Matthew 25:40 Mission Scholars × Great Plains Kubota × Invenergy
McDonald's of Oklahoma × National Livestock Credit Corp. × Warren Cat × Wes and Lou Watkins